

Cry Baby Bridge - Script

(Bold, capitalized words indicate strong emphasis and '....' indicates a pause)

An unfathomable tale that was never known till now, this is a story that will give you paralyzing chills! Once, there was a MAN. Cold blood RAN through the veins of that slave owner. No one had the guts to talk to him. It was like a DEVIL in a human's body. Nobody dared to look him in the EYES.

Then one day, his malicious sight fell upon one of his slaves. His unconcealed LUST for that woman drove him INSANE. What started as a thought, soon turned into an affair.

Unaware of his ruthless actions, the unspeakable affair had a REPERCUSSION. The slave had become pregnant!

Ruled by EVIL, a satanic thought cropped up in his mind. KILL THE BABY, MURDER THE WOMAN! To hide his misdeeds, he decided to turn this unsympathetic thought into action.

What was supposed to be a fine day for the woman was about to become a NIGHTMARE! With wickedness at its peak, the man drove his car and followed her. With a tight grip on the steering, the man CLENCHED his jaws. Without a second thought, he accelerated the vehicle and RAMMED into the woman at the bridge.

The impact threw them off and both the woman and her baby were instantly killed. Taking one final look at the GHASTLY SIGHT, the man drove off.

Legend says, the bridge is now cursed and is unholy. People fear to go anywhere near it. They call it the CRY....BABY.... BRIDGE!

Emotions dry down, vision goes astray, body shivers all over when you visit the CRY BABY BRIDGE. It's fabled that it's SO TERRORIZING you will want to KILL YOURSELF!

If you are at the Cry Baby Bridge and if you stop the car, turn the headlights off and place the keys on the hood and say, "ROSEMARY, I HAVE YOUR BABY" thrice, you will hear a CRYING SOUND of a baby and you might see THE WOMAN! You don't want to know what might happen next!
